

ALSA –National Chapter India

Press Release

ALSA INDIA ANNOUNCES OPPORTUNITY INVITING APPLICATIONS TO REPRESENT INDIA AT THE ANNUAL ALSA FORUM, TAIWAN.

17th May, 2014: On 30th April 2014, Asian Law Students Association (ALSA) unanimously voted for and granted Asian Law Students Association - India (ALSA India) the status of an official Observer Nation.

Owing to the status of observer nation, ALSA India is proud to announce that Indian law students who opt to become members of ALSA India, can now take part in the many forums, competitions and other events which ALSA conducts in all of their member nations.

ALSA India announces opportunity inviting applications to represent India at the Annual ALSA Forum, hosted by ALSA Taiwan. Students currently enrolled in a law course (Integrated, Graduate LL.B, LL.M, and Ph.D) from any College/University recognized by Bar Council of India is eligible to apply.

Please note that as events of ALSA is open ONLY for members of ALSA India, hence any student applying to represent India to the Taiwan forum would be required to apply for membership to ALSA India. Such membership shall be provisional in nature, and shall automatically be made official once ALSA India has successfully recruited its first National Council.

Eligibility Requirements To Represent India At The Taiwan Conference:-

- 1) Member of ALSA India
- 2) Passport with minimum 6 months validity.
- 3) Bonafide certificate from college.

ALSA –National Chapter India

Total Registration Charges (per student): -

$500 : ALSA Forum 2014 delegate fee

$50 : Administrative charges towards International Fund Transfer, Currency exchange Charge and loyalty fees to ALSA International.

[Please note that this charge is apart from your travel expenses and your personal expenses that you may incur while staying in Taiwan]

Any student interested in representing India is invited to apply through mail at alsaindianc@gmail.com with their cv and statement of purpose attached.

Last date of application: - 30th May, 2014

For further queries contact alsaindianc@gmail.com

Important Links:

ALSA India Website

ALSA India Facebook Page

ALSA International Website

ALSA forum 2014 Website

Constitution of ALSA India

ALSA Always Be One.

Manas Dowlani
President
ALSA

Sourya Banerjee
Secretary General
ALSA India

