

ALSA –National Chapter India

PRESS RELEASE (3/2014)

Call For applications

NATIONAL BOARD 2014-2015 for Asian Law Students Association: Indian National Chapter

September 9, 2014: Asian Law Students Association India is inviting applications for its NATIONAL BOARD 2014-2015. With a 12,000 member strong organization composed of students and alumni, Asian Law Students Association has fourteen countries as members, of which India is the youngest one.

ALSA India's main goal will be to develop skills and talents of our members to help them in various aspects of their professional career. With the core aims of promoting academic and cross-cultural exchanges between India and Asian law students, ALSA India shall seek to integrate the activities of law students across the country. The chapter will aim at bringing terms with the international scenario and seeks to establish India as a leader among Asian countries in terms of legal education and exposure and increase the overall standard of students. Besides helping Indian students get international exposure with the help of Study Trips and Exchange Programs, ALSA India shall help foreign students get attached and placed in top Indian law firms.

ALSA India shall soon be inviting enterprising and adventurous law students, to form local chapters in their respective institutions and strengthen the network.

Students may apply for the following positions in the NATIONAL BOARD 2014-2015:

- 1) VP: Academic Activities (1).
- 2) VP: Public Relations (1).
- 3) VP: Seminars & Events (1).
- 4) Treasurer (1).
- 5) Zonal Conveners (5)

ALSA Always Be One!

Connect with us on Facebook

– www.facebook.com/alsaindia

For more details, please visit

– www.alsaindia.org

